

Hoi Ping Scholars Make History in HKDSE 2020

Hoi Ping students' diligence and resilience during school suspension enabled them to bring home the most impressive results since the start of the HKDSE.

The percentage of students attaining levels 5+ and 4+ leapt to a record high of 30.9% and 71.7% respectively; 3.3% of students attained Level 5**, our second-best performance since 2012. Of the 150 S6 students, 88% of them attained the university entrance minimum requirement (33222), which is also our second-best performance.

The percentage of students scoring 22 points or above in their Best 5 subjects was 41.3%, with a rise of 8.4%. In particular, an impressive 40% of our students captured 5* or 5** in Mathematics Module 2 (M2); as for English Language, the percentage of students capturing 5** jumped to 4%. The elective subject with the best performance was Economics, with 10% and 21.7% of students attaining levels 5** and 5* respectively.

We send our heartfelt congratulations to our S6 students, and hope this encouraging trend will continue!

A Very Warm Welcome to Our New Principal

As the new school year unfolds, Hoi Ping is excited to welcome our new principal, Mr. Chen Tak Nam!

Formerly the Vice Principal of an EMI school, Mr. Chen is a young educationalist with vision who displays commendable professionalism in the realms of teaching and school administration. His wealth of experience in various strands of education translated into his expertise in curriculum development and action research. He also shares extensively in seminars and on local media where he makes frequent appearances.

Mr. Chen underwent academic training both in Hong Kong and abroad. Subsequent to his bachelor's degree in Chinese Language from The Chinese University of Hong Kong, he was granted the Chevening Scholarship to complete his master's degree in International Relations at The University of Bristol in the United Kingdom. His rich blend of academic training also encompasses the recent training he undertook in education administration and management prior to his principalship.

Mr. Chen's diversity of experience and rigorous academic training would surely be assets bringing Hoi Ping to another pinnacle!

Young Artist Bags Trophy with Emotive Artwork

4A Hau Toi Man, Winnie participated in the Emoment Visual Art Competition organised by Academic Advisers and did impressively.

Her artwork, a watercolour piece that the judges found pertaining to the competition's theme, 'emotional moment', earned her a place in the final round, in which she competed with 15 students from different schools. After an intensive interview in February, Winnie became one of the eight winners chosen to go on an exchange tour in Kyoto, Japan. Even though the trip was eventually cancelled due to the coronavirus outbreak, it certainly did not eclipse Winnie's talent and accomplishment!

Winnie's artwork captures emotions with deft brushstrokes and earns her a place in the highly competitive final round.

School Orchestra Wins Silver with Iconic Tango Piece

On 19th December 2019, our school orchestra participated in the Hong Kong Youth Music Interflow 2019 – Symphony Orchestra Contest and won the Silver Prize.

Hoi Ping students performed the iconic tango piece, Por Una Cabeza, which features plenty of rubato and a give-and-take rhythmic feeling. The young musicians were well-attuned to one another and the orchestration was well-balanced, which greatly impressed the judges and eventually earned them an excellent result.

The merry group brings home a well-deserved prize after months of hard work.

Outstanding Students Duly Awarded for Achievements in ECAs and Voluntary Work

Wong Tsz Shun, Charlotte (3A) and Lo Cheuk Yin, Sabrina (5B) have made impressive contributions to extra-curricular activities and voluntary work. As a result, Charlotte and Sabrina were elected as the Outstanding Students in the Kowloon City District Outstanding Student Election (2019-20), which was jointly organised by the Kowloon City District School Principals' Liaison Committee and the Home Affairs Department. The competition was keen – being elected proved that Charlotte and Sabrina possessed great potential!

Sabrina has been elected as an Outstanding Student in the Senior Section.

Charlotte has been elected as an Outstanding Student in the Junior Section.

Dedicated Athlete Wins Esteemed Sports Award

5B Chung Yui Ying, Nicole was one of the awardees in A. S. Watson Group Hong Kong Student Sports Awards 2019/2020. Nicole has accomplished outstanding results in athletics and is dedicated to sports. Having worked hard to win numerous medals in athletics competitions and served as the captain of the Girls' Athletics Team, Nicole's passion and good sportsmanship have certainly served as an example for her juniors.

Nicole is an all-round student who delivers her utmost in each and every endeavour.

This motley team with swimmers of different ages strives towards a common goal, which comes to fruition in the competition.

Swimmers Outperforming Themselves in Latest Competition

On 26th September and 9th October 2019, our school's swimming team participated in the Inter-school Swimming Competition 2019-2020. They practised hard for this annual competition, dedicating their time and effort to strive for excellence. In light of their aspirations, they gave their best and achieved marvellous results, eventually obtaining the overall second runner-up for boys A grade, the overall third runner-up for boys B grade, the overall second runner-up for boys C grade, and the overall championship for boys. The impressive performance has earned the boys' team an entry ticket to Division Two. Congratulations to the swimming team!

Fencers Fight Their Way to Triumph

On 15th December 2019, our school's fencing team participated in the Outreach Coaching Fencing (Foil) Competition 2019/2020. Four teams of students took part in the competition. They all showed off their talents for fencing and competed against other participants fearlessly. In the end, our students captured the championship and second runner-up in the boys senior section, the championship in the girls junior section, and the second runner-up in the girls senior section. The encouraging results certainly motivate the fencers to set higher goals in the future!

The team delivers a fantastic performance that pleases the coaches throughout the competition.

If You Think Parents' Days Are Mundane, Think Again!

On the Parents' Day on 14th December 2019, Ms Elaine Cheung, social worker of Christian Family Service Centre, shared with some 540 parents on how to instill empathy in children. After that, alongside the teacher-parent sharing sessions for other forms, S1 students pulled together for a thanksgiving session for their parents. With the help of peer tutors and class teachers, S1 students blew everyone's mind with their impressive performances and sharing, earning them appreciation from parents and teachers alike.

S1 students passed special gifts that they had prepared to their parents.

Peer Tutorship Smoothing S1 Students' Way Through Transition

With the aim of helping S1 students prepare for the First Term Test, the Counselling Committee organised study group sessions for S1 students during lunchtime from 21st to 25th October 2019. Responsible for helping and teaching S1 students in the study groups, Peer Tutors shared their learning experience to help S1 students transition into their secondary school life.

Assistance from Peer Tutors offered S1 students valuable insights into learning effectively.

Budding Architects Plugged Into the Realm of Architecture!

Five S5 students joined The Hang Lung Young Architects Program this year. The programme aims at inspiring students to appreciate the wonders and stories of architecture, and explore the link between architecture and community. To this end, professional architects took participants through three seminar modules, walking tours, and workshops, from which our students mastered skills of sketching, 3D model making, digital 3D modelling, site analysis and community planning. With these, they then undertook a creative project, wrapping up this one-of-a-kind journey into architecture.

5C Tung Ching Hei, 5C Ng Tsze Hei, 5D Huang Ka Yee, 5E Ma Kan Yan and 5E Wong Pui Sze will go a long way with what they have learnt from The Hang Lung Young Architects Program.

Avid alumni in different walks of life assembled in the CAL Room to enlighten S3-5 students online.

A Careers Day That Looks Like No Other!

To expose students to the world of work, Careers Day is held every year. This year, due to the outbreak of COVID-19, Careers Day was conducted online for the first time. There were 29 alumni from different fields of work such as the medical sector, business, engineering, education, telecommunication, government departments and so on. Through talks in small groups, students were given an opportunity to explore the nature and entrance requirements of different occupations. It broadened students' horizons and inspired them to set goals for their future careers.

Learning is Bound by Classrooms? Quite A Thing of The Past!

The Electrical and Mechanical Services Department took our students through the Life Buddies Mentorship Programme this year. S3-5 students had the privilege of visiting the Fire Services Department, where staff shed light on how science principles govern the maintenance of fire trucks and firefighting equipment, as well as the operation of aerial ladder platforms. They also glimpsed the handling of mail all the way from post offices to recipients in the Central Mail Centre, being an extraordinary science lesson for students.

Enthusiasm is evident among participants in awe of how science comes to life.

S6 Students Given a Heads-Up – Things to Know For Farmers' Sake

To enhance students' awareness of fair trade, two simulation activities were held in S6 OLE lessons. A group of students joined the Orange Game, which required students to role-play orange farmers who joined the fair trade cooperatives. Another group of students joined the Sweat Factory Activity, which required students to role-play smartphone factory workers. The activities enhanced students' knowledge of fair trade and understanding of how fair trade cooperatives empower farmers in developing countries.

S6 students revelled in games which taught them the challenges and difficulties that real farmers in developing countries face.

朗誦聲聲遍開平： 第七十一屆香港學校朗誦節 (中文朗誦)

每年中文與普通話科都會鼓勵同學積極參與校際朗誦節比賽，期望在訓練過程中提高同學的朗誦技巧，並增加同學對文學作品的感悟與鑑賞能力，感受作品意境與情懷，達聲入心通之效。本年度共有28位來自各級的同學報名參與獨誦及二人朗誦項目，雖然集誦及其餘不少朗誦比賽場次最終因社會不明朗情況而遺憾取消，但相信同學定能在訓練中獲益良多。最終我校有五組同學獲得了兩季、兩亞、一冠的成績，其中中二級許恩希、邱可晴同學更勇奪二人朗誦比賽冠軍，獲評判稱讚「互動合拍，表情迫真，咬字清楚，聲調掌握甚佳」，表現令人欣喜。希望我校同學繼續努力，以朗誦為媒介，讓心神暢遊於文學世界中。

提燈引前路 無憂習中文： 中一、中四級講座

中文科於本年度分別為中一、中四級同學舉辦了一次MC2講座，以照顧剛步入初、高中階段同學的學習需要。中一級講座於2019年10月29日進行，以提高同學學習中文興趣為目的，內容包括中文科課程講解、展示優秀課業、提示學習注意事項等，以期為同學未來學習作好準備。中四級講座則於11月29日進行，向同學講解文憑試校本評核的形式與內容，貼合高中學習需求，讓同學增加對課程的了解，及早備戰。同學皆認真聽講，反應積極，獲益不淺。

文學評論風氣振 言辭犀利露鋒芒

中文科每年皆鼓勵同學積極參與校內外徵文比賽，踴躍投稿，培養創作興趣，提升寫作能力。本年度中四級盧霄陽同學參加了由香港文學評論文學主辦的香港文評大賞2019，比賽旨在推廣文學評論，鼓勵優質書評與創作。盧同學撰寫的《蝦子香》書評榮獲「書評組推薦獎」，作品獲載於香港文學評論網站。盧同學選取了《蝦子香》的三篇散文，就當中牽涉的女性困境、社會矛盾、親子關係等議題作評述，文思躍然紙上，文筆流暢，表現理想。
